is the new Jim Crow

MONDAY NOV. 25TH

6:30 - 8:30 PM

COLLEGE 9/10 RECREATION LOUNGE

Orange Is The New Jim Crow will illuminate the multiple harms that incarcerated women and gender variant people face behind bars, as well as their dynamic resistance to everyday systemic control. This discussion will encourage participants to think deeply and critically about our own responsibility to redesign a social landscape in which coercion and confinement are replaced with alternatives that make our bodies and communities truly safe.
